

Project: WILD C.I.C. - "Schools Go WILD!"

Media Consent Form

Dear Parent/Guardian,

As part of science week, we are lucky to be able to host Project Wild and their "Schools Go Wild" enrichment sessions. Each year group will be engaged in a hands-on animal session either on Monday 9th March or Wednesday 11th March.

As your child is participating in the exciting "Schools Go WILD!" programme delivered by Project: WILD C.I.C. During these sessions, their team may take photographs and short videos to capture the children's engagement, learning, and enjoyment. Please see statement from Project wild below regarding images:

We would like to use these images and videos for the following purposes, including:

- Funder Reports: To show our generous funders the impact of their support. The funders may also wish to use this media in their own materials relating to the project.
- Case Studies: To highlight the success of our educational programmes.
- Marketing & Promotion: To share the positive experiences of "Schools Go WILD!" with other schools, parents, and the wider public (e.g., on our website, social media channels, and in promotional materials). Please be assured:
- We will never identify your child by their full name in any public materials without specific, separate consent.
- Participation in the "Schools Go WILD!" programme is not dependent on you granting media permission. Your decision will not affect your child's involvement.

Kind regards
Michelle Batty
