

The different Life

A year six girl walked the path home alone stargazing alone
yeh that's me I have a different life.

People wonder why I have gidgets in class but on the race course I'm fast
I love sports
but what's stopping me
is my thoughts

My thoughts are always churnin'
It's not fun when it starts burnin' furious, fast
the table flips bang I erupt.

I often get taken outside.
The good thing is I know someone is by my side
I see a glower
only I can see it because of my super power

A decorative border of various colored leaves (orange, yellow, green, pink, blue, red) surrounds the text.

People say I'm different but really I'm not I'm just the same as them.

When I play sports we use different coloured cones
Boom I can play sports again yeh that's me I have different life.

By Alice and Ellie